DAN RADAKOVICH
VICE PRESIDENT/ DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
 INDIANA (PA.), 1980

Dan Radakovich was named the 15th Director of Athletics in University of Miami history in December 2021, returning to his graduate school alma mater as one of the nation's most decorated and successful college athletics administrators.

Radakovich, who previously served as Director of Athletics at Clemson for nine years, launched his career at UM in 1983 as the Hurricanes' athletic business manager, an experience which charted a course that has now spanned seven schools and 35-plus years as a visionary leader in all aspects of college athletics.

Since returning to Coral Gables, Radakovich has worked with campus leaders to chart an ambitious course for Miami Athletics with respect to facilities, sport sponsorship, fundraising, student-athlete experience, Name, Image & Likeness opportunities and staff development. He has hired six new head coaches (baseball, women's basketball, golf, rowing, soccer and men's tennis) and extended the contracts of seven others. He has worked closely with head football coach Mario Cristobal to ramp up recruiting, evaluation, sports science and creative resources for the football program. Miami is currently working on an expansion to the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility, the initial step in an overarching football operations center project. UM recently opened the Susan and Stephen Symons Basketball Training Center, The Ruiz Family Baseball Strength & Conditioning Center and a new on-campus rowing training facility.

This past year, the Hurricanes produced two individual national champions in Alexa Noel, who captured the NCAA women's singles crown, and Russell Robinson, who won the NCAA indoor track and field title in the triple jump. Miami had eight individual ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

In 2022-23, Miami's men's basketball team reached its first-ever Final Four, while the women's basketball team advanced to the first Elite Eight in school history. UM also posted its highest Learfield Directors' Cup finish since 2016. Miami was one of seven schools – and the only ACC school – to have players drafted in the 2023 NFL, NBA, WNBA and MLB Drafts. In 2021-22, Miami was one of just two schools (along with North Carolina) to have its football team qualify for a bowl game, its men's basketball team reach the Sweet 16 and its baseball team host a regional.

Miami's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (94 percent) and NCAA Academic Progress Report score (996) both set school records. In Spring 2024, UM student-athletes posted a cumulative grade point average of 3.23, which set a department record. A school-record 275 UM student-athletes made the 2023-24 ACC Honor Roll. Miami finished second in the 2023 NCAA Team Works Community Service competition, one year after winning the competition for the second time.

Miami Athletic Development has raised more than $45 million in gifts and commitments over the past two fiscal years from nearly 20,000 supporters. The athletic department's total raised for the Ever Brighter Campaign, which will conclude as with UM's centennial in 2025, is nearing $190 million. In addition, Miami's multimedia rights partnership with Legends resulted in record single-year revenue growth this past year.

Radakovich is the past President of LEAD1, which represents athletic directors at the Division I level. He was named 2017 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year after being a finalist in 2015. In 2014, Radakovich was one of 13 people, including one of five FBS Directors of Athletics, to be named to the first College Football Playoff committee. He was recently appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision Oversight Committee for a four-year term through 2028.

At Clemson, Radakovich oversaw the most successful stretch in Tigers football history as the program won two national championships (2016, 2018), six ACC titles and made six College Football Playoff appearances.

Radakovich continuously led the Tigers athletic department to high achievements, both on the field and in the classroom, while developing significant upgrades in finance and facilities.

Clemson set a school record in the NCAA's 2021 GSR report, posting a 95 percent score, which also tied for first in the ACC amongst public schools. Radakovich guided the department successfully throughout the pandemic, helping Clemson to reopen athletic operations, including safely hosting 112,367 fans at Memorial Stadium in 2020, third most in the nation.

In 2020-21, Clemson had its best finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2007, finishing No. 36. Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

During Radakovich's tenure, IPTAY, the school's fundraising arm, saw significant increases in contributions and he was instrumental along with the IPTAY Board of Directors in the Cornerstone Partner Program, which together has helped fund numerous investments in infrastructure and the student-athlete experience.

During the 2018-19 school year, Clemson won its second football national championship in three years, defeating Alabama 44-16. During the 2017-18 school year, Clemson became the first school in history to reach the College Football Playoff, advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and host a baseball regional in the same season.

Since 2013, Clemson received approvals for more than $200 million in facility improvements and increased spending on direct student-athlete development programs, including nutrition, mental health and professional development, by $2.4 million. His department increased overall revenue from $69 million in fiscal year 2014 to a budgeted $131 million in fiscal year 2020. Littlejohn Coliseum opened to rave reviews following a $63 million renovation. The Allen N. Reeves Football Complex opened in 2017, setting the standard for football facilities around the country. The Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center opened as a state-of-the-art facility for student-athlete development in the classroom and community. The development, rebranding and expansion of football's P.A.W. Journey highlighted a best-in-class approach to preparation for life after their Clemson football careers.

Prior to his arrival, Radakovich amassed a wealth of experience serving in significant athletic administrative roles at Georgia Tech, LSU, American, South Carolina, Long Beach State and UM.

Radakovich came to Clemson from Georgia Tech, where he served as Director of Athletics for six years (2006-12). He hired football head coach Paul Johnson, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2023, and rebuilt McCamish Pavilion, home to the Yellow Jackets' men's and women's basketball teams. Prior to his tenure at Georgia Tech, Radakovich worked as a Senior Associate Athletic Director at LSU from 2001-06. He had many responsibilities with the football program, including the year the Tigers won the national title in 2003.

From 2000-01 Radakovich was Director of Athletics at American University. Between 1994 and 2000, he served as Chief Financial Officer at South Carolina. He gained experience on the West Coast from 1989-94, when he was a Senior Associate Athletic Director at Long Beach State. Radakovich worked at The U from 1983-85 as Athletics Business Manager.

Radakovich, a native of Aliquippa, Pa., is a 1980 graduate of Indiana (Pa.), where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance. He was also a football letterman and student coach with the Crimson Hawk program, and he was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2021. He previously was enshrined into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and was recognized as a distinguished alumnus from Indiana in 2009.

Radakovich and his wife, Marcie, have two sons, Christian, a 2012 Georgia Tech graduate, and Grant, a 2015 Mercer graduate who was a graduate transfer tight end on Clemson's 2016 national championship football team.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

Head Coach (12th Season) | 74-73 (.503) | Third Season at Miami (24th Overall)

Mario Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach in December 2021. He is entering his third season as Miami's head coach in 2024.

The Hurricanes showed tremendous growth from Year 1 to Year 2 under Cristobal's direction; Miami was No. 24 in total defense and No. 25 in total offense in all of FBS in 2023, jumping 40 spots in total defense (up from No. 64) and 60 spots in total offense (from No. 85). Miami pulled in the top two recruiting classes in program history in the modern era by every ranking in his two full cycles - the No. 7 class in the nation in 2023 and the No. 4 class in the nation in 2024.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He was the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the previous three seasons before joining his alma mater.

Cristobal brought more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's four seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 13 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past two drafts. During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Kayvon Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen. Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season.

During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

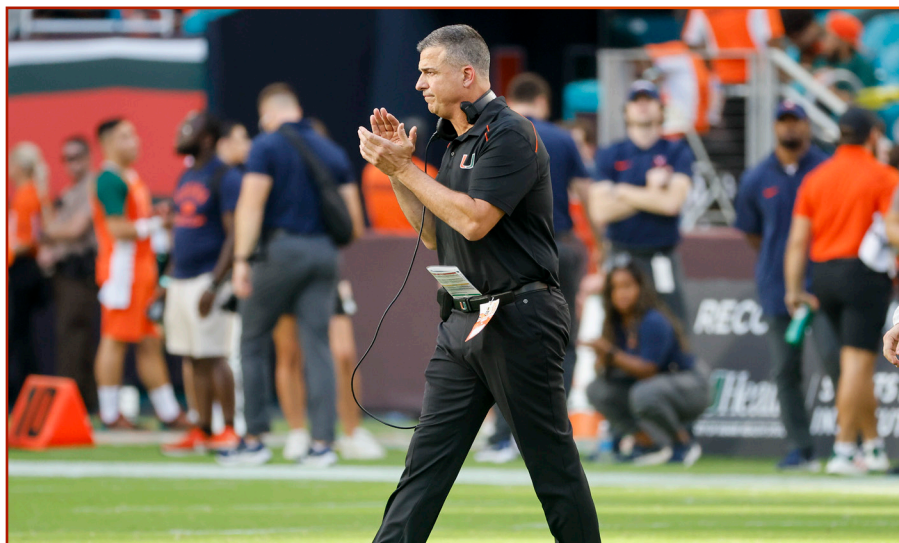

Considered one of the country's elite recruiters and evaluators of talent, Cristobal, during his tenures at both Alabama and Oregon, helped assemble national top-15 recruiting classes eight straight years, with seven of those classes rated in the top 10. The 2018 class at Alabama produced three NFL first-round draft picks. At Oregon, he constructed the Pac-12's top-rated recruiting classes in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

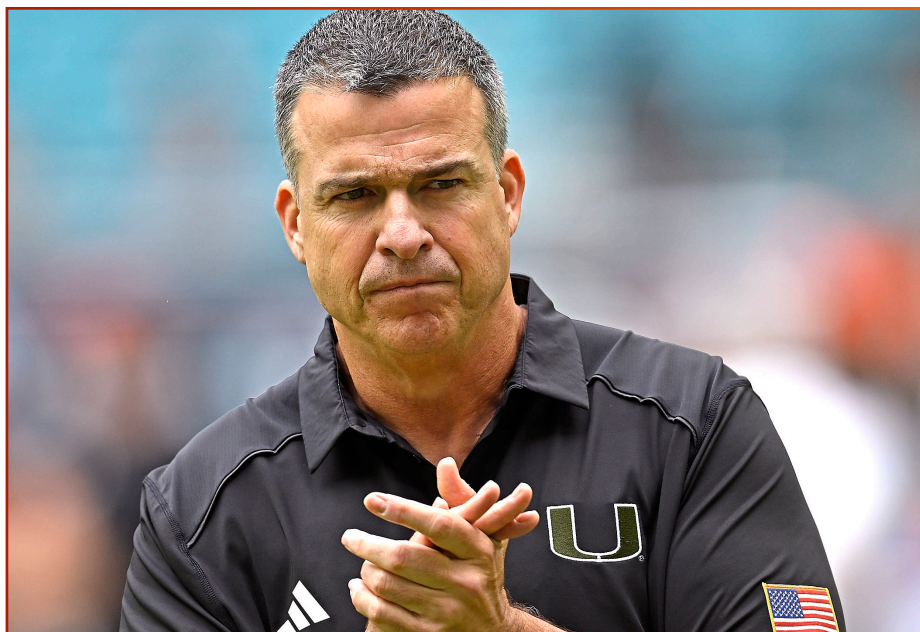

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory. That season, 2010, he was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year. In total, he coached six seasons at FIU, from 2007 to 2012.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970. He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.

His efforts also helped former Golden Eagle Ito Smith become just the 10th running back in FBS history to rush for over 4,000 yards and collect at least 1,000 receiving yards.

Dawson, who was named offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach at Miami in February 2023, spent the previous four seasons at the University of Houston, including the last three as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joined the program as tight ends coach at Houston in January 2019 after three seasons as offensive coordinator at Southern Miss.

In Dawson's three seasons as quarterbacks coach with the Cougars (2020-22), Houston quarterbacks combined to throw 87 touchdown passes (13th nationally) behind a 65.3 completion percentage (19th nationally) and 10,008 passing yards (21st nationally). Dawson tutored signal caller Clayton Tune to a record-setting career. In 2022, Tune set the American Athletic Conference single-season touchdown passes record (40). The first-team all-conference honoree ranked third nationally in passing touchdowns, third in total offense (355.2) and fifth in passing yards per game (313.4).

In his first season with Golden Eagles, Dawson mentored Nick Mullens in his senior season, who ended his career first in passing yards and touchdowns thrown. Mullens signed a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers heading into this season. Southern Miss also set a school record for total offensive yards in a game with 702 against Rice.

Dawson also helped build some of the nation's most prolific offenses at West Virginia, where he spent four seasons, including his last three as offensive coordinator. In his last season in Morgantown, WVU ranked 12th in the nation in total offense, averaging 499.8 yards per game, and was ninth nationally in passing offense at 317 yards per contest.

A native of Clinton, La., Dawson played his college football at Wingate (N.C.) University as a quarterback and wide receiver. He began his coaching career as receivers coach at his alma mater in 2002. Dawson linked up with former Kentucky head coach Hal Mumme in 2003-04 to help revive a program at Southeastern Louisiana that had been dormant for 17 years. He also coached with Mumme at New Mexico State in 2005.

Dawson went to Millsaps College as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2006-07.

Dawson moved to Stephen F. Austin University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2008-10. SFA won or shared the Southland Conference championship the next two seasons, advancing to the FCS playoffs both years.

LANCE GUIDRY

Defensive Coordinator | Second Season at Miami (31st Overall)

Lance Guidry is in his second season as the Hurricanes' defensive coordinator in 2024.

Miami's defense was among the nation's most improved in its first season under Guidry's direction in 2023, with a jump to No. 24 in total defense (up from No. 64 in 2022), No. 11 in rushing defense (No. 54) and No. 37 in third down defensive percentage (No. 97).

Guidry, who was named defensive coordinator at Miami in February 2023, spent the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Marshall University, where his defenses proved to be among the nation's elite units. Marshall's defense ranked in the top five nationally in FBS in several key statistics, including third down defense (first), stop rate (second), pass efficiency defense (third), defensive efficiency (third), yards per play (third), turnovers gained (fifth) and rushing defense (fifth).

In a dominant 2022 campaign, the Thundering Herd also finished the season ranked sixth in scoring defense (16.0) and passes intercepted (18), eighth in total defense (294.5), ninth in first down defense (200), 12th in defensive touchdowns (3), 16th in team sacks (2.92), 19th in red zone defense (76.7) and 22nd tackles for loss (6.9) and fumbles recovered (11).

In his first season in the position with the Thundering Herd in 2021, Guidry's defensive squad led the conference and placed among the top 30 nationally in passing efficiency defense (12th - 117.56), sacks (18th - 3.08) and tackles for loss (30th - 6.6). Nine of the team's defensive players were recognized by the C-USA in their end of the season awards.

Prior to arriving at Marshall, Guidry spent a year working as the safeties coach at FAU in 2020. Guidry, who spent the 2019 season at Southeastern Louisiana, served six seasons for McNeese State, his alma mater, the last three as the head coach of the Cowboys.

All told, Guidry spent 12 seasons at McNeese State during which the team compiled a 98-45 overall record, including a 60-24 mark in Southland Conference play.

Guidry was part of McNeese staffs that helped the Cowboys to four Southland Conference championships and six appearances in the FCS playoffs, including a trip to the 2002 FCS championship game. Guidry's consistently dominant defense were highlighted by his units in both the 2015 and 2017 seasons. The 2017 Cowboys led the nation and set a new Southland record with 54.5 rushing yards per game allowed - the seventh-lowest average allowed in FCS history. Guidry's 2017 McNeese defense propelled the Cowboys to a 9-2 record, ranking in the top 10 nationally in several categories.

That season, the Cowboys held five teams without an offensive touchdown, including Southeastern Louisiana in a 13-3 McNeese victory in Lake Charles. That year's Lions' offense averaged 428.1 total yards, 283.1 rushing yards and 34.8 points per game. In 2015, McNeese won the Southland Conference title and finished with a perfect regular season record.

Prior to his stint at McNeese, Guidry was the defensive coordinator for two seasons at WKU and served as the interim coach for the Hilltoppers in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl - the program's first bowl appearance. His 2012 defense led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense, sacks, pass defense efficiency and first downs allowed. Before coaching at WKU, Guidry was defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) for two seasons. The 2010 RedHawks were 10-4 and won the GoDaddy.com Bowl over Middle Tennessee, 35-21, with Guidry serving as interim head coach.

Guidry also had local high school coaching stops at Leesville and Carencro High School. A 1995 McNeese graduate and two-time All-Conference strong safety, Guidry helped McNeese to a pair of conference titles and playoff appearances during his collegiate playing career (1990-93).

Guidry and his wife, Starlet, have four children: Janzen, Madison, Alexis and Kaitlyn.

Alex Mirabal is in his third season as a member of the Miami Hurricanes Football coaching staff, where he serves as assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

Thanks largely to stellar play by its offensive line, Miami's offense was among the nation's most improved in 2023, with a jump to No. 25 in total offense (up from No. 85 in 2022), No. 22 in yards per play (from No. 67) and No. 35 in scoring offense (from No. 96).

Mirabal, a high school teammate of head coach Mario Cristobal, has been the one constant on the staff during Cristobal's career as a head coach. Mirabal came to Miami after spending the previous four years on Cristobal's staff as offensive line coach at Oregon from 2018-2021.

During eight of his 11 full seasons as head coach entering his tenure at Miami, Cristobal has entrusted Mirabal with the development of the offensive line. For the first six years of Cristobal's head coaching career, Mirabal served as his assistant head coach.

In Mirabal's time at Oregon, the offensive line was the driving force behind Oregon's offensive success. The Ducks rushed for 203.2 yards per game in 2021 - ranked No. 24 in the nation - and had 200-plus rush yards on seven occasions, including two 300-yard games

Mirabal was instrumental in Oregon's success on the recruiting trail over his time there. During the 2021 cycle, Mirabal earned recognition as one of the top 25 recruiters in the country while helping Oregon to an all-time best No. 3 class ranking by Rivals.

Mirabal's success has not only been limited to the recruiting space, but also in player development, where he has thrived throughout his career. In 2019, Oregon offensive tackle Penel Sewell won the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman and was a consensus All-American for an offensive line that helped lead the Ducks to a Rose Bowl championship. In 2019, a year when Oregon won the Pac-

12 Championship and the Rose Bowl while finishing 12-2, the Ducks' offensive line was one of four finalists for the Joe Moore Award, which honors the nation's most outstanding unit in college football.

Mirabal coached four players in his time at Oregon who earned All-America honors, including Sewell. Oregon's left tackle, Sewell joined LaMichael James (2010) and Marcus Mariota (2014) as the only Oregon players to be unanimous first-team All-Americans. Sewell also claimed freshman All-America recognition in 2018 from USA Today and 24/7Sports. Following the 2019 season, Mirabal saw four of his Ducks' offensive linemen move on to the NFL.

In between his stints with Cristobal, Mirabal put together a successful five-year run at Marshall as the Thundering Herd's offensive line coach. Prior to reuniting with Cristobal in Eugene, Mirabal had a league-leading eight first or second-team All-Conference USA selections on the offensive line from 2013 to 2017 at Marshall, helping pave the way for the Thundering Herd to put together a 44-22 record.

Mirabal served as the assistant head coach for six years at FIU under Cristobal, working with the offensive line his final three years following three seasons coaching tight ends.

In 2012, FIU offensive linemen Caylin Hauptmann and Rupert Bryan Jr. were named second-team and third-team All-Sun Belt Conference selections, respectively, by Phil Steele. During FIU's impressive two-year run in 2010 and 2011, Mirabal's offensive line was regarded as one of the best in the Sun Belt, allowing just 20 and 15 sacks in successive seasons.

A long-time Miami-Dade high school football coach, Mirabal taught and coached around south Florida starting in 1993 all the way up to his arrival at FIU.

He helped lead Miami's Christopher Columbus High School to three district championships.

Mirabal began his coaching career at Christopher Columbus High School by taking on a variety of roles. Mirabal and his wife, Berta, have two sons - Alejandro and Nicolas.

It marked the first time since 2010 that Akron placed a first-team linebacker, and the first time since 2001 that the Zips had multiple linebackers on the All-Conference team.

He began his coaching career in 2011, coaching high school football in both North Carolina and Florida.

A standout linebacker at Florida State, Nicholson finished his career with 207 tackles, 25.5 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, two defensive touchdowns, and was named to the Butkus Award and Chuck Bednarik Watch Lists in 2008. Nicholson led the Seminoles in tackles for two consecutive seasons. In 2008, he garnered All-ACC honors and was a member of the All-ACC academic team during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Nicholson earned his undergraduate degree in sport management in just three years while at FSU. He was an undrafted free agent signee by the Atlanta Falcons and played for them in 2009 before a career-ending knee injury.

Nicholson and his wife, Onnie, a former soccer athlete at Florida State and the USA National Team, have three children: Alana, Dace and Amaya.

Nicholson, who arrived to Miami in 2023 as linebackers coach, spent the previous three seasons as linebackers coach at Louisville, where he helped elevate the Cardinals' defense. In 2022, Nicholson helped guide Momo Sanogo to All-ACC honors after finishing with 86 tackles and 8.5 TFLs. Nicholson also tutored linebacker C.J. Avery to lead the team in tackles in each of his first two seasons, and saw the linebacker earn all-ACC honorable mention honors in 2021.

Nicholson made an immediate impact at the inside linebacker position in his first year on the Cardinals staff. He guided Monty Montgomery to his best season, leading the team in sacks for the second consecutive season, while his counterpart Dorian Etheridge inked a contract with the Atlanta Falcons following the year.

Nicholson arrived back in Louisville in 2020 after spending four seasons at Southern Mississippi - two seasons coaching the defensive line and two serving as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Nicholson assisted with a defense that led Conference USA and finished 18th nationally in rushing defense. The Golden Eagles finished third in the league and 37th in the country in total defense in helping the team earn an appearance in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Under Nicholson's tutelage, linebacker Hayes Maple was named to the Conference USA all-Freshman squad after finishing with 31 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. With Nicholson coaching the linebackers in 2018, the Golden Eagles established themselves as one of the nation's top defenses, finishing third in total defense,

Joe Salave'a is in his third season as a member of the Miami Hurricanes Football coaching staff, where he serves as defensive line coach, associate head coach (defense) and defensive run game coordinator.

Miami's defense was among the nation's most improved in 2023, with a jump to No. 24 in total defense (up from No. 64 in 2022), No. 11 in rushing defense (No. 54) and No. 37 in third down defensive percentage (No. 97).

Salave'a arrived in Miami after spending the previous four seasons working in a similar capacity at the University of Oregon under head coach Mario Cristobal.

Salave'a and Cristobal both came to Oregon as assistant coaches in 2017, and when Cristobal was named head coach, Salave'a stayed with the program and added co-defensive coordinator and run-game coordinator to his title.

Salave'a spent the final four seasons of his time in Eugene as associate head coach. In his final season in 2021, two of Salave'a's top defensive linemen - Kayvon Thibodeaux and Brandon Dorlus - earned first-team Pac-12 recognition. Thibodeaux delivered a dominant three-year career in Eugene, becoming the program's first player in history on the defensive side of the ball to earn consensus All-American in his final season.

During his five seasons at Oregon, the Ducks' defense showed marked improvement. With Salave'a in charge, Oregon's defensive line increased its big play output significantly over the last four seasons. After having just 25 sacks in 2016, Oregon finished 2019 with 41 sacks.

Individually, Salave'a coached his second freshman All-American during the 2019 season. The Athletic, USA Today and 24/7Sports all named Thibodeaux a first-team freshman all-America pick, while the league's coaches named him the Pac-12 Conference Freshman Defensive Player of the Year. The Associated Press tabbed Thibodeaux as a first-team all-conference player.

Thibodeaux was the third Oregon defensive lineman to be named all-league under Salave'a's guidance. Jalen Jelks, a seventh-round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2019 NFL Draft, claimed first-team honors following the 2018 season and was a second-team pick after the 2017 season. Jordan Scott claimed all-league accolades in both 2018 and 2019, earning second-team honors by the AP in 2018 and honorable mention recognition from the league's coaches after both seasons. Senior Austin Faoliu made it four all-conference players coached by Salave'a when he claimed honorable mention honors in 2020 while Thibodeaux was earning first-team recognition from both the coaches and the AP.

A member of the Polynesian Football Hall of Fame and an eight-year NFL veteran, Salave'a spent five seasons at Washington State, working the first three as defensive line coach before adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two seasons with the Cougars.

Salave'a spent a season at his alma mater as the defensive line coach, joining the Wildcats in time for preparation for the 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl. Salave'a began his coaching career in 2008 at San Jose State.

Salave'a enjoyed an eight-year NFL career after the Tennessee Titans selected him out of Arizona in the fourth round of the 1998 NFL Draft. Salave'a spent five years with the Titans, split 2003 with the Baltimore Ravens and San Diego Chargers and finished his career with a three-year stint with the Washington Redskins before retiring after the 2006 season. Salave'a lettered at Arizona as a defensive tackle from 1994-97, earning first-team all-Pac-12 honors in 1997. A native of Leone, American Samoa, Salave'a has been one of the territory's foremost ambassadors, promoting the game among Samoan youth, including founding the Joe Salave'a Foundation in 2001 to help introduce the game and strengthen its appeal. The Polynesian Football Hall of Fame honored Salave'a with induction in 2019.

He and his wife, Josephine, have one daughter, Katalina Elizabeth, and one son, Joseph Fatuimoana Jr.

Jason Taylor is in his second season as the Hurricanes' defensive line coach in 2023.

Miami's defense was among the nation's most improved in 2023, with a jump to No. 24 in total defense (up from No. 64 in 2022), No. 11 in rushing defense (No. 54) and No. 37 in third down defensive percentage (No. 97).

Taylor, a Pro Football Hall of Famer, served as a defensive analyst for the Hurricanes in his first season with the program in 2022.

After one of the most dominant playing careers in NFL history, Taylor began his coaching career in the high school ranks at nearby St. Thomas Aquinas High School.

Taylor was defensive line coach at St. Thomas from 2017-2019 before serving as defensive coordinator for his final two seasons (2020-21).

A former NFL Defensive Player of the Year with the Miami Dolphins, Taylor was a six-time NFL Pro Bowl selection and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2017 – his first year of eligibility.

Taylor earned a role as a starter early in his rookie season and tallied 5.0 sacks, 50 total tackles, two fumble recoveries and three passes defended. He logged these numbers despite missing three games due to a fractured forearm. His dominant play helped pave the way for the first of five straight postseason berths for Miami.

Taylor quickly became the anchor of the Dolphins' tough and aggressive defense. In 1998, he recorded nine sacks and a team-high four forced fumbles. Taylor earned the first of six career Pro Bowl invitations after the 2000 season when he recorded 14.5 sacks along with 68 total tackles, an interception, four fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and five passes defended. The effort earned Taylor team MVP honors and was the first of six seasons in which he logged double-digits in sacks.

Taylor, who led the league in sacks with 18.5 in 2002, enjoyed his finest season in 2006 when he was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year. That season, he terrorized offenses with 62 total tackles, a team-high 13.5 sacks, two interceptions returned for scores, 11 passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries.

A three-time first-team All-Pro (2000, 2002, 2006) recipient and a four-time All-AFC choice (2000, 2002, 2004, 2006), Taylor had brief stints with the Washington Redskins (2008) and New York Jets (2010).

Taylor was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 2000s. Taylor finished his playing career with 775 career tackles, 139.5 career sacks and 46 forced fumbles.

Taylor, married to his wife Monica, has four children: Isaiah, Mason, Zoe and Jordan.

1926-36

THE BEGINNING

Before competition even took place on a freshman level, plans for a 50,000-seat on campus stadium were proposed in 1926 by the school's first president, Dr. Bowman Ashe. Work began on a temporary, 8,000-seat structure on campus, but one day later, on September 17, 1926, a hurricane leveled much of South Florida, killing more than 130 people, damaging over 10,000 homes and shelving plans for the stadium.

Classes would start late and it wasn't until October 23 that UM played its first game: a 7-0 win over Rollins in front of 304 spectators. The season included two wins over the University of Havana, with a Thanksgiving Day game in Miami and a Christmas Day meeting in Cuba.

The first varsity competition came in 1927 and coach Howard Buck guided the Hurricanes to a 3-6-1 record with a 39-3 win over Rollins in the first game.

MIAMI'S FIRST ROAD VICTORY

J. Burton Rix, who had coached at Texas and SMU, arrived in time for the 1929 season and Miami's first varsity road games. The team traveled via the city's private car, The Spirit of Miami on the Eastern Seaboard Railroad.

MIAMI'S FIRST INTERSECTIONAL GAME

Miami's first intersectional game was an indoor contest against Temple in Atlantic City, N.J. The UM players presented their opponents with coconuts prior to the contest; in return Temple handed Miami a 34-0 defeat. Also that season, the Hurricanes played one of the nation's first night games on October 31, 1930 a game vs. Bowden College in Miami.

FIRST BOWL GAME

UM entered the bowl business, upsetting Manhattan in the Palm Festival on January 1, 1933, at Moore Park in Miami. The next year, UM went 5-0-2 but lost in the Palm Festival to a Duquesne team coached by Elmer Layden (one of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame).

BEGINNING OF THE FAMED ORANGE BOWL

UM played Bucknell on New Year's Day following the 1934 season in the Wooden Bowl. A halftime parade that included an orange-colored bowl was the humble beginning of the famed Orange Bowl extravaganzas produced by Earnie Seiler.

1937-42, 1945-47

THE JACK HARDING ERA

Jack Harding served as both head coach and athletic director in 1937. In nine seasons as head coach (with a two-year break for service in World War II), Harding moved the Hurricanes from the ranks of a small time program into major college status. In 1937 UM also moved into the Roddey Burdine Municipal Stadium (later renamed the Orange Bowl).

HURRICANES' FIRST WIN OVER GATORS

Miami won its first meeting against Florida and that same year captured the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship for the first time.

HURRICANES DURING WWII

Eddie Dunn, a running back out of Pittsburgh, starred for the Hurricanes in the late '30s and took over as head coach for two years (1943-44) during World War II. When Harding returned just prior to the 1945 season, it appeared that UM would suffer through another miserable season after going 1-7-1 in 1944. But enrollment began to swell as hundreds returned from the service. The Canes forged a 9-1-1 record that included one of the most memorable Orange Bowl games in history.

On January 1, 1946, UM and Holy Cross had battled to a 6-6 tie with just a few seconds remaining. Crusader quarterback Gene DeFilippo threw a desperation pass that went in and out of the arms of an open receiver and wound up in the hands of the Hurricanes' Al Hudson. A former Miami Edison High track star, Hudson juggled the ball and sprinted 89 yards for the winning score as time ran out.

THE ANDY GUSTAFSON ERA

In 16 seasons, Andy Gustafson's teams went to four bowls and appeared on national television nine times. He developed the "Miami Drive Series", a form of the belly option generally considered the forerunner of the wishbone and coached Al Carapella as UM's first major college All-American (1950). Gustafson's 1950 squad went 9-1-1, defeated Purdue one week after the Boilermakers had broken Notre Dame's unbeaten streak at 39 games and earned an Orange Bowl bid against Clemson.

UM'S FIRST TOP 10 RANKING

A No. 9 ranking by both UP and INS in 1954 marked UM's first Top 10 ranking at the end of the season. In 1956, on the strength of an 8-1-1 mark, the Hurricanes finished sixth in all three wire service polls.

HURRICANES AND INTEGRATION

UM broke a Southern tradition by playing against African-American players in a 14-6 defeat of Iowa in the Orange Bowl. In the late 1950s, UM had won a battle with the city to open seating to African-Americans in the entire Orange Bowl, and on January 31, 1961, the UM trustees voted unanimously to open the door to all students.

FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN HURRICANES

In December 1966, the University of Miami signed an African-American athlete, Ray Bellamy, a 6-5, 210-pound wide receiver from Palmetto, Fla., who chose Miami over Florida State, Florida A&M and a number of major colleges in the Midwest. Miami became the second major college in the South with an African-American football player on scholarship, and Bellamy became a standout both on and off the football field. Tom Sullivan, a tailback from Jacksonville, became the second African-American signee in 1968 and was followed one year later by future pro stars Burgess Owens and Chuck Foreman.

THE AGE OF MIRACLES

Key West native George Mira, Sr. led Miami to a pair of bowl games while twice earning All-America honors in the early 1960s. Nicknamed "The Matador," Mira set nearly every passing record in the school's history, finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a senior and tied a national completion record (368) despite UM's 3-7 record.

1964-69

THE CHARLIE TATE ERA

Charlie Tate was tabbed as head man in early 1964 and after two years at .500 under Tate, another star emerged to lead UM to back-to-back bowl games.

HENDRICKS EMERGES

Born in Guatemala and raised in South Florida, Ted Hendricks, nicknamed "The Mad Stork," became one of the most feared pass rushers in college football. He became the school's first and only three-time All-American (1966, 1967 and 1968).

1970-78

CANES FIND THEIR WAY

Five different coaches guided UM from 1970-78, with Walk Kichefski (1970), Fran Curci (1971-72), Pete Elliott (1973-74), Carl Selmer (1975-76) and Lou Saban (1977-78) combining to go 37-61 in nine seasons. Elliott had the most success of the group, going 5-6 in 1973 and 6-5 in 1974. During the 1974 season - one of only two winning seasons for UM in the 1970s - the Canes won road contests at No. 19 Houston and West Virginia, in addition to picking up home victories over Virginia Tech and Syracuse. UM's other winning season of the 1970s came in 1978 when Saban guided UM to 6-5 campaign with road wins at Kansas, at No. 19 Auburn and at Florida to close out the season.

The bad times were eased some when Miami pulled a stunning 14-13 upset of Florida in Gainesville.

FIFTH DOWN PLAY

After three games in 1972, the Hurricanes were winless and playing at home against Tulane when a fifth down play gave Miami a 24-21 win. The Hurricanes had started with a first-and-10 from Tulane's 12-yard line late in the game. After four plays (plus a nullified penalty down), Miami was exiting the field, still trailing 21-17. But the officials called the UM offense back onto the field for another down, which resulted in a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ed Carney to split end Witt Beckman.

1979-1983

THE HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER ERA

In January 1979, UM hired Dolphins offensive coordinator Howard Schnellenberger as its eighth head coach since 1963. Schnellenberger installed a pro-style passing attack, and in his first year at the helm UM became known as the "Jet-Lag Kids." The team traveled more than 28,000 miles in 1979, an NCAA record, including trips to the Japan Bowl, San Diego State, Penn State and Syracuse, posting a 5-6 record.

TURNING POINT UNDER SCHNELLENBERGER

A year later, Schnellenberger's Hurricanes went 8-3 and were invited to the Peach Bowl. They posted a 20-10 victory over Virginia Tech to finish 9-3 for the season. That game is cited by many as the turning point in the UM football program. UM went 9-2 in 1981 and 7-4 in 1982, both respectable seasons. Still, nobody knew what was coming next. By Schnellenberger's fifth and last season of 1983, UM had traveled even further - to the national championship of college football. Behind the passing wizardry of freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the Hurricanes upset Nebraska 31-30 in the 50th Orange Bowl Classic to cap a storybook 11-1 season and a No. 1 spot in both wire service polls

1984-88

THE JIMMY JOHNSON ERA

In May 1984, UM athletic director Sam Jankovich plucked Jimmy Johnson away from Oklahoma State. Johnson's first campaign resulted in an 8-5 record, including the "Hail Flutie" loss to Boston College and an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

TESTAVERDE BECOMES UM'S FIRST HEISMAN WINNER

In 1986, the 60th year of UM's varsity football history, the Hurricanes fielded what many consider to be one of the best college football teams ever. Led by Miami's first Heisman Trophy winner - Vinny Testaverde - the Hurricanes swept through the regular season with a perfect 11-0 mark. Miami held down the No. 1 national ranking for 15 weeks in the fall of 1986 on the strength of a record-breaking offense and the nation's No. 5 ranked defense, a unit that featured first-team All-Americans Jerome Brown and Bennie Blades.

THREE CANES TAKEN IN FIRST NINE PICKS OF NFL DRAFT

The Hurricanes of 1986 appeared on network TV in eight of their 12 games, and in the spring of 1987, three Hurricanes (Testaverde, Alonzo Highsmith and Jerome Brown) were selected in the first nine picks of the NFL Draft.

SECOND TITLE IN 1987

The Hurricanes firmly established themselves as the "Team of the 1980s" in 1987 by winning the school's second national championship in five years. The season was highlighted by "The Game of the Year," as it was later called, on October 3 in Tallahassee, as No. 3 Miami faced No. 4 Florida State on national television (CBS). Miami overcame a 19-3 deficit behind three Steve Walsh touchdown passes and Bubba McDowell knocked down an FSU two-point conversion attempt to preserve a 26-25 Hurricanes victory.

THE FIRST UNBEATEN SET OF CANES

In the 1988 Orange Bowl, Miami, for the third consecutive season, dealt the powerful Oklahoma Sooners their only defeat of the year, 20-14. Miami completed a 12-0 season, the first undefeated record by a UM varsity team.

BLADES AND STUBBS SHINE

At season's end, safety Bennie Blades, Miami's all-time interceptions leader, was named consensus All-American for the second straight year and in January 1988 he was named co-recipient of the Jim Thorpe Award, which honors the nation's finest defensive back. DE Daniel Stubbs, Miami's all-time sack leader, also closed out his memorable career as a consensus All-American and finished as a finalist for the Outland Trophy.

FIRST TRIP TO THE WHITE HOUSE

On January 29, 1988, the Hurricane players and coaches were honored guests of President Ronald Reagan at the White House, a first for any collegiate athletic team in the state of Florida.

1989-94

THE DENNIS ERICKSON ERA

Dennis Erickson of Washington State was named UM's 18th head coach on March 5, 1989. Erickson earned the distinction of being only the second Division I head coach to win a national title in his first season at a school, leading the Hurricanes to an 11-1 record and the school's third national championship in seven seasons. Truly the "Team of the 1980s", Miami stormed to the crown with a 33-25 win over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. QB Craig Erickson won Sugar Bowl MVP honors.

The 1990 edition of the Hurricanes went on to set school records in total offense (482.9 yards per game) and in passing yardage (324.8 ypg). A powerful defensive unit anchored by All-Americans Russell Maryland (who went on to become the Hurricanes' first Outland Trophy winner and was the first overall pick in the NFL draft) and Maurice Crum (a Butkus Award finalist) allowed just 79.7 yards per game rushing. Miami finished the season with a 10-2 record and a 46-3 victory over Texas in the Mobil Cotton Bowl (UM's eighth straight New Year's Day Bowl). With its No. 3 final ranking, it became only the second team in college football history to finish No. 1, 2 or 3 for five straight seasons.

MIAMI JOINS THE BIG EAST

Following the 1990 season, Miami officially became a charter member of the BIG EAST Football Conference, joining Boston College, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Rutgers, Temple, Virginia Tech and West Virginia.

UNDEFEATED AGAIN

In 1991, Miami went 12-0 for only the second time in its history, winning the AP National Championship, while Washington, which also finished 12-0, was voted National Champion by CNN/USA TODAY (coaches). It was the second title in Dennis Erickson's three years (a feat matched by only one other coach), the third for the school in five years, and fourth in nine.

HUERTA'S RECORD

Kicker Carlos Huerta set an NCAA record with 157 consecutive extra points and set or tied 13 Miami records. He finished with 397 career points, third on the NCAA career list, and was one of five UM first-team

All-Americans, joining defensive back Darryl Williams, offensive lineman Leon Searcy, linebacker Darrin Smith and receiver/kick returner Kevin Williams.

WHITE HOUSE AGAIN

The season ended with a third visit to the White House in five years, this time to see President George H.W. Bush, following a convincing 22-0 win over Nebraska in the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

HURRICANE ANDREW STRIKES

The 1992 season saw the Hurricanes face a level of adversity previously unimagined. Just prior to the season, on August 24, South Florida was devastated by Hurricane Andrew causing Erickson, five other coaches and several staff and players' families to move out of their severely damaged homes. The Miami football team was forced to move nearly 200 miles north to Dodgertown in Vero Beach to complete preseason drills before playing the season opener. The 24-7 road victory at Iowa was the first positive symbol for a ravaged Miami community. Head coach Dennis Erickson was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year, while QB Gino Torretta earned college football's highest individual honor, becoming Miami's second Heisman Trophy winner.

Torretta became the most honored college player in history and was joined by linebackers Micheal Barrow and Darrin Smith and cornerback Ryan McNeil as first-team All-Americans.

NCAA RECORD SET

A 41-17 defeat of Memphis State in the 1993 season finale gave the Canes their 57th consecutive home victory, tying the NCAA record set by Alabama, and sent a senior class to graduation without a loss in the Orange Bowl during their careers.

58 IN A ROW

Miami opened the 1994 campaign by etching its name atop an NCAA record that may never fall. With a 56-0 victory over Georgia Southern, the Hurricanes recorded their 58th consecutive victory in the Orange Bowl, a streak that began in 1985. After posting a road victory at Arizona State, the Canes returned home to face another Pac-10 foe, Washington. The Huskies capitalized on a series of UM miscues early in the third quarter to produce 22 points, and the Miami home win streak ended with a 38-20 defeat.

SAPP WINS LOMBARDI AWARD

Defensive tackle Warren Sapp etched his name among the great defensive linemen in UM history as he was named a consensus All-American and Miami's first Lombardi Award winner in 1994.

1995-2000

THE BUTCH DAVIS ERA

Former UM assistant Butch Davis returned to Coral Gables following six seasons as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys in January of 1995. By mid-October, Miami found itself with a 1-3 record, including a 0-1 mark in conference play, Miami regrouped and reeled off seven straight wins to finish the season with an 8-3 record. Junior middle linebacker Ray Lewis finished second in the balloting for the 1995 Butkus Award and was honored as a first-team All-American by the Associated Press.

3 FOR 300

The 1997 Hurricanes became the first team in the history of the program to put together three consecutive games of rushing for more than 300 yards. Miami accomplished the feat in wins over Boston College, Temple and Arkansas State. In the thrilling, double overtime victory over BC, running back Edgerrin James set what was then a BIG EAST and University of Miami single-game rushing record with 271 yards in the 45-44 win.

BACK TO THE TOP

In 1998, the Hurricanes began their ascent back to the top of college football. A team that featured 71 sophomores and freshmen battled to a BIG EAST Conference title showdown with Syracuse in the conference finale. Miami rebounded from a bitter defeat at Syracuse to ruin UCLA's national title hopes in the regular-season finale. In a game that was originally scheduled to be played in the Orange Bowl on September 26 but was rescheduled for December 5 as Hurricane George set its sights on South Florida, Miami hosted the third-ranked Bruins and their 20-game winning streak. When Cade McNown's "Hail Mary" pass fell through the back of the end zone as time expired, fans stormed the Orange Bowl field to celebrate UM's dramatic 49-45 victory. The Hurricanes had sent notice to the college football world that the program was headed back in the right direction. Miami finished 1998 with a 9-3 mark and a No. 20 final ranking following a 46-23 dismantling of NC State in the Micron PC Bowl at nearby Pro Player Stadium.

BC COMEBACK

The Hurricanes produced the largest comeback in UM history at Boston College in 1999, erasing a 28-0 third quarter deficit to win, 31-28. That win provided UM with momentum as the Canes would win seven of their final eight games, the only loss coming to No. 2 Virginia Tech.

BACK ON TOP

The 2000 Hurricanes tallied big victories over top-ranked Florida State and No. 2 Virginia Tech on their way to being acknowledged nationally as college football's hottest team at season's end, but were not given a chance to play for the national championship. UM laid an impressive 37-20 win on Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to make a case for a fifth championship and setting the stage for another title run in 2001.

2001-06

THE LARRY COKER ERA

Larry Coker was named as UM's 19th head football coach on February 3, 2001. The 2001 season started with Coker facing coaching legend Joe Paterno and the Penn State Nittany Lions. A crowd of 109,313 – the largest ever for a Miami game – watched the Hurricanes open the season with a resounding statement. Miami raced to a 30-0 halftime lead on the way to a 33-7 victory before a national television audience. QB Ken Dorsey orchestrated a 344-yard passing performance and the Hurricanes were stifling on defense in the victory.

"BREAK HISTORY AND MAKE HISTORY"

The Seminoles were riding a 54-game home unbeaten streak (37 straight wins), and had not lost on their home turf since a UM victory in 1991. Miami's mission to "Break History and Make History" was accomplished in spectacular fashion with a 49-27 defeat of the Seminoles. Another national television audience watched the Hurricanes' defense cause six FSU turnovers. Miami scored via offense, defense and special teams en route to one of its largest points total ever against the Seminoles, a victory that returned UM to the top of the rankings.

NO. 5 TAKES THE ROSE

The Rose Bowl hosted the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) title game for the first time. It also marked the first time in 56 years that teams from conferences other than the Pac-10 and Big Ten were competing in the game. Miami left little doubt about which team was college football's best, as it raced to a 34-0 halftime lead behind a huge first-half performance by game co-MVPs Ken Dorsey and Andre Johnson. Dorsey and Johnson connected for two touchdowns and 199 yards in the game with Dorsey throwing for a career-best 362 yards. Portis added another score on a brilliant 39-yard touchdown run and the Hurricanes were able to enjoy the second half of their national title victory. Miami's fifth national title team in 19 years ranked among its most dominating, setting a school and BIG EAST record with 475 points in the regular season. Miami's 37-point outburst in the Rose Bowl gave the team 512 points overall. In BIG EAST games, the 2001 Hurricanes scored 290 points, second to 2000's 310. During the 2001 regular season, UM outscored its opponents by an average margin of 43.2 to 9.4. The total included a 239-33 (21.7-3.0) advantage in the first half and 236-70 (21.5-6.36) mark in the second half. The Hurricanes were especially dominant at home as they outscored their opponents by a staggering 306-17 count.

COKER MAKES HISTORY

Coker became the first rookie head coach to lead his team to a national title since 1948. He earned two national Coach of the Year honors, winning the "Bear" Bryant Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, and sharing the American Football Coaches' Association honor with Maryland's Ralph Friedgen.

LOPSIDED WIN IN THE SWAMP

The first regular-season meeting between UM and UF in 16 years was a matchup of a pair of teams ranked in the nation's top 10 in 2002. The top-ranked Hurricanes dominated the sixth-ranked Gators with an impressive show of offensive versatility and defensive force in a stunningly easy 41-16 victory. The outcome was the most lopsided UF home loss in more than 20 years. Quarterback Ken Dorsey threw for four touchdowns, tailback Willis McGahee rushed for 204 yards and the Miami defense created three turnovers.

JUSY SHY OF NO. 6

The Hurricanes had earned a shot at their sixth national title with a berth in the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where they would face Ohio State in Tempe, Ariz., and the matchup provided one of college football's most dramatic games. Miami overcame a 17-7 second-half deficit to tie the game when Todd Sievers nailed a 40-yard field goal as time expired. Miami took the lead 24-17 in the first overtime when Dorsey connected with tight end Kellen Winslow for a score. Ohio State responded with a touchdown to send it to a second overtime, a score made possible by a controversial pass interference call in the end zone on a fourth-down play that kept the Buckeyes' drive alive. OSU took a 31-24 lead, a lead they held when Miami's final possession ended on an incompletion from the two-yard line on fourth down.

RALLY AGAINST THE GATORS

Miami opened with Florida in 2004 and fell behind the Gators 33-10 midway through the third quarter. A packed house at the Orange Bowl was in disbelief but the Hurricanes rallied behind the hot hand of quarterback Brock Berlin who compiled one of the most amazing performances in Miami history in the second half. Berlin led Miami to a 38-33 comeback win by completing 19 of his final 21 passes over the game's final 21 minutes, leading four touchdown drives and taking the Hurricanes to the winning score with just over a minute remaining. Miami closed its season in the FedEx Orange Bowl against rival Florida State. A missed FSU field goal attempt in the fourth period continued Miami's roll in the series, as the Hurricanes ended 2003 with a five-game win streak over their rivals from Tallahassee.

Eight Hurricanes earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors in 2003, led by conference Defensive Player of the Year Sean Taylor. Taylor and tight end Kellen Winslow were consensus first-team All-Americans while linebacker Jonathan Vilma was mentioned on several All-America squads and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. Winslow continued Miami's string of award winners as he was named winner of the John Mackey Award as college football's top tight end.

HURRICANES JOIN THE ACC

After having six players selected in the first round of the NFL draft in April, the most ever of any college, the Hurricanes embarked on their first season as members of the Atlantic Coast Conference. UM played on Labor Day night against Florida State in the Orange Bowl in front of a nationally televised ABC audience. However, the arrival of another Hurricane – this one called Hurricane Francis – closed down the campus and delayed the game four days. Devin Hester blocked a late field goal, giving the Hurricanes a chance. Not long after, Brock Berlin led Miami on an 80-yard drive, throwing a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sinorice Moss with 30 seconds remaining. The game went into overtime and Frank Gore scored on an 18-yard run for a 16-10 victory.

THE RANDY SHANNON ERA

The Randy Shannon era began on Sept. 1, 2007, with the Hurricanes knocking off Marshall, 31-3, to jumpstart a 2007 season that was a building year for the mighty Hurricanes. One of the two highlight games of the 2007 season occurred on a Thursday night at the Orange Bowl, as a stifling Miami defense wreaked havoc on Texas A&M's triple-option attack, limiting one of the nation's top rushing teams to less than 100 yards on the ground. The Hurricanes' offense moved through the air and on the ground as Miami won, 34-17.

Miami had a thrilling 37-29 win at in-state rival Florida State. The Hurricanes showed the ability to rally late – using a late touchdown pass in the closing minutes and a fumble return to seal the win. UM closed the Orange Bowl with a loss to Virginia. Miami also made Dolphin Stadium its new home when it opened up the 2008 season with a 52-7 win over Charleston Southern. Freshman LB Sean Spence was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year. K/P Matt Bosher was given the Jack Harding MVP Award and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award.

THE AL GOLDEN ERA

Al Golden was named the University of Miami's 22nd head football coach in December 2010. From 2010 to 2011, the Canes improved 19-plus spots among the nation's FBS schools in turnover margin (+19), fewest penalties per game (+63) and fewest yards penalized per game (+85).

The Miami defense finished the season ranked No. 21 in the nation in scoring defense and tied for ninth in red zone defense.

In his second season at the helm, Golden led the Hurricanes, which were picked to finish fifth in the ACC Coastal Division, to a 7-5 record and a 5-3 league mark, earning a share of the 2012 ACC Coastal Division title.

MIAMI TOPS GATORS AGAIN

Golden led the Hurricanes to a 9-4 record in 2013 and a berth in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando – Miami's first bowl appearance since 2010. The 2013 season began with a 7-0 start, including a win over No. 12 Florida as the Hurricanes jumped as high as No. 7 in the BCS rankings.

The 2014 campaign saw the emergence of true freshman quarterback Brad Kaaya. In his rookie campaign with the Hurricanes, Kaaya broke several Miami rookie records, including the school standard for passing yards and touchdowns. Kaaya closed the year with 3,198 yards passing, 26 touchdowns and just 12 interceptions en route to being named ACC Rookie of the Year and receiving Freshman All-America honors. He became just the third Miami signal-caller to surpass 3,000 yards passing in a single season since 2003.

The start of the 2015 season opened on a high note for the Hurricanes as they posted a 3-0 record for the 17th time in the previous 60 years. Miami would then go on to drop three of its next four games and fell to 4-3 on the year, which led to the dismissal of Golden.

Assistant coach Larry Scott took over head coaching duties on Oct. 25 and would go on to lead the Canes to a 4-1 record over the final five games of the season and helped Miami to an appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. Following the year, defensive backs Artie Burns (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Deon

Bush (Chicago Bears) were picked in the first and fourth rounds of the draft.

2015 - 2018

THE MARK RICHT ERA

A new era in Miami Hurricanes football began on Dec. 4, 2015 as Director of Athletics Blake James named Mark Richt as the 24th head coach in program history.

Richt, a 1982 Miami alum, returned home to South Florida following a 15-year career at Georgia where he compiled a 145-51 overall record and an 85-40 mark in Southeastern Conference play.

CANES WIN BOWL DEBUT UNDER RICHT

In his first season at Miami, Richt guided the Hurricanes to an impressive 9-4 record. Miami finished tied for second in the ACC Coastal, won its final five games and won its first bowl game in 10 years, defeating West Virginia 31-14 in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The Hurricanes finished 20th in the final AP Top 25 rankings and 23rd in the final Amway Coaches Poll, their first season-ending rankings since 2009.

Nine Hurricanes were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, the most since 2006, including first-round selection David Njoku to the Browns. Richt helped the Hurricanes improve upon his debut season and then some in 2017 - a year where Miami's "turnover chain" took over college football.

CHARLOTTE-BOUND FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

The Hurricanes won 10 games in 2017, climbing as high as second in the College Football Playoff rankings. Miami captured the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division for the first time in its history and earned an invitation to the Capital One Orange Bowl for the first time in 13 years. Richt won 2017 ACC Coach of the Year honors and was also named the 2017 Walter Camp Coach of the Year. The Hurricanes, who won 10 straight games to open the season, extended their winning streak to 15 straight games dating to 2016 - their longest since 2002.

In the process, Miami ended a seven-game losing streak to Florida State with a last-second win in Tallahassee. The Hurricanes also defeated No. 13 Virginia Tech and No. 3 Notre Dame in back-to-back, nationally televised, prime time telecasts at Hard Rock Stadium. ESPN's College GameDay made its first visit to Coral Gables for the win over the Irish, which was Miami's highest win over a ranked opponent since defeating third-ranked Virginia Tech in 2005. Richt led the Hurricanes to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in 2018, successfully knocking off ACC rivals Florida State and Virginia Tech for the second straight season. He announced his retirement as head coach after Miami's trip to New York City for the Pinstripe Bowl.

"The University of Miami has been a part of my life for more than three decades," Richt shared in an official statement. "It shaped me as a young man and provided me with the coaching opportunity of a lifetime. My love for The U is simply great."

2019 - 2021

THE MANNY DIAZ ERA

Manny Diaz, who helped catapult the Hurricanes' defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator under Mark Richt from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program in December 2018.

Diaz led the Hurricanes to a 21-15 mark in his three seasons at the helm, highlighted by a 2020 season where the Hurricanes finished with an 8-3 record and a 7-2 mark in conference play.

The Hurricanes won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall. Jaelan Phillips and Gregory Rousseau became first-round picks in the 2021 NFL Draft, while Jose Borregales won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker.

2022 - PRESENT

CRISTOBAL RETURNS HOME

Mario Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach in December 2021.

1983 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE MIRACLE IN MIAMI

Less than a decade removed from a period of uncertainty in which there was open talk of dropping the football program, the University of Miami Hurricanes stunned the college football world by defeating the top-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers, 31-30, in the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic on Jan. 2, 1984.

The victory was monumental – for UM football and for college football in general. It was monumental not only because the Cornhuskers were widely considered to be among the most powerful teams in college football history, but it also heralded the dawn of a new dynasty in the sport from a program that had been all but dead just a few short years earlier. That victory – combined with losses by second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Illinois in the Rose Bowl – vaulted the Hurricanes into the top spot in the final national rankings.

This was the first national title team without a single player making an All-America first team voted by AP, UPI, the Football Writers Association or the College Football Coaches Association; Jay Brophy was a first-team All-America by The Football News.

One of the keys was a melting pot offensive line – a Canadian (center Ian Sinclair), a Cuban-American (guard Juan Comendero), an African-American (guard Alvin Ward), an Italian-American (tackle Paul Bertuccelli) and an Irish-American (tackle Dave Heffernan).

Miami was only the second national title team to gain more passing yards than rushing yards.

"It's a tribute to a lot of gutsy players and a real team effort," head coach Howard Schnellenberger said. "We've got a lot of overachievers on our team – or else there has been a poor job of selection done by the All-American selectors."

DOMINANCE FROM START TO FINISH

The Hurricanes were supposed to be rebuilding. Reloading was more accurate. This Miami team was supposed to be the lull before the storm of 1988 and 1989. After all, the Hurricanes had lost five starters on offense from a team that had come within a whisper of a national title in 1985 and a 1986 squad that was considered among the best ever, only to lose its title shot in the Fiesta Bowl.

But this team was more offensively balanced than the previous season's juggernaut and, with nine starters returning to an underrated defense, the Hurricanes were a more well-rounded team altogether. Ranked 10th in the preseason Associated Press rankings, this team quickly showed it would be better than advertised.

Miami ripped rival Florida in the season opener, then embarrassed Arkansas on the Razorbacks' home field. The season's third game was a classic. Being dominated by fourth-ranked Florida State, 19-3, late in the third quarter, Miami launched one of its greatest comebacks. The Hurricanes scored three lightning-quick touchdowns: a 49-yard bomb from Steve Walsh to Melvin Bratton, a 26-yarder from Walsh to Michael Irvin (plus a two-point conversion to tie it at 19), then a 73-yard strike from Walsh to Irvin for the lead with 2:22 remaining. Miami would have to stop an FSU two-pointer to hold for a 26-25 victory.

There seemed to be no stopping these Hurricanes after that. Miami rolled through the remainder of the regular season, blanking 10th-ranked Notre Dame (24-0) and surviving a scare from eighth-ranked South Carolina (20-16) to set up a matchup with top-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl Classic on New Year's Day.

The Hurricanes bottled up OU's wishbone attack, holding the Sooners to just 179 yards on the ground (OU came in averaging 428.8). Elation for Miami was frustration for OU – the Sooners' only three losses over the last three seasons had come to the Hurricanes.

"We played our way to this championship. We have the best record versus anybody in the country... We beat Oklahoma three in a row, Florida State and Notre Dame three in a row, Florida a couple... What is sweetest is that we did it as a team. We lost starters and had other guys come in and played magnificently."

- Jimmy Johnson, head coach

TWO ERICKSONS AND A TENACIOUS 'D'

By the time head coach Dennis Erickson arrived in Coral Gables to take over the UM football program prior to the 1989 season, Miami football had established itself as the "Team of the '80s". With a new coaching staff in place, Miami switched to a one-back offense, but the Hurricanes remained in their trademark 4-3 defense and had the talent on both sides of the ball to maintain their level of excellence. Twelve starters returned, but the loss of quarterback Steve Walsh, running back Cleveland Gary, linebacker Randy Shannon and cornerback Bubba McDowell would be felt. Nonetheless, the Hurricanes reloaded and ran off six victories to start the season.

Quarterback Craig Erickson was lost for three games in the middle of the season — including a 24-10 loss at Florida State — before returning and leading the Hurricanes on an impressive stretch run.

Miami's defense didn't allow a touchdown for one 10-quarter stretch during the regular season, held six opponents without a touchdown and allowed just 9.3 points per game. Miami rebounded from the FSU loss to whip their remaining opponents by an average margin of 18 points, including a 27-10 trouncing of defending national champion and top-ranked Notre Dame (27-10), ending the Irish's 23-game win streak (the seventh season in a row in which UM had defeated a No. 1-ranked team). That victory clinched a Sugar Bowl berth against seventh-ranked Alabama. Miami dispatched Alabama by a deceptively close 33-25 score in New Orleans and moved into the top spot of the rankings when Notre Dame knocked off top-ranked Colorado in the Orange Bowl, giving the Hurricanes their third national title in seven seasons.

GINO, THE RUTHLESS POSSE AND WIDE RIGHT I

A combustible offense, a rock-solid defense and the nation's best special teams – by 1991 all these traits had become synonymous with Miami football and this team represented the zenith of its era. Quarterback Gino Torretta, a group of skill players nicknamed “The Ruthless Posse,” and a linebacker corps that ranks among the greatest ever assembled, led these Hurricanes.

Miami started the season by ripping Arkansas on the road and dominating a Houston offense that had terrorized opponents for four seasons up to that game. Their first stiff challenge came against Penn State on Oct. 12 and the Hurricanes, behind staunch defense and big plays by Horace Copeland (80-yard scoring catch) and Kevin Williams (91-yard punt return for a TD) held off the Nittany Lions.

Two challenges in November punctuated the season. First was the annual grudge match in Tallahassee, Fla., against Florida State. In what became known as “Wide Right I” the Hurricanes erased a 16-7 deficit in the final period on a 45-yard field goal by Carlos Huerta and a one-yard run by Larry Jones with 3:01 left to take a 17-16 lead. FSU marched down for a potential game-winning field goal in the closing seconds, but Gerry Thomas’ 34-yard attempt was wide right.

Miami escaped another close call a week later, slipping by Boston College on the road. The Hurricanes defense held off a late BC drive in the final seconds to preserve the 19-14 victory. A blowout of San Diego State clinched an Orange Bowl berth.

With their fourth national title in their sights, the Hurricanes stymied the Huskers’ offense as few had, limiting the Nebraska ground game to just 82 rushing yards and throwing a shutout of the Big Eight Conference champions.

The victory gave Miami the national title in the Associated Press rankings. The Hurricanes shared overall national honors with Rose Bowl champ Washington, which nudged ahead in the coaches’ poll.

“To win one national championship is amazing. For guys to win their second in three years, that hasn’t been accomplished by many. That’s what makes this championship special. And it came in a situation where we had not been picked to be that good. Some people said we’d be No. 3 in the state of Florida.”

— Dennis Erickson, Miami head coach

CHARACTER, CLASS, POISE = CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hurricanes' fifth national championship may have been the program's most rewarding. A veteran senior class that had endured the shame of a losing season in 1997 and had rebuilt the program — inside and out — led this team. Miami returned to the top in 2001 by showing character, class and poise.

How good was this team? Many argue it may have been the greatest college football team ever assembled. This team beat opponents by the largest average margin in UM history (33.2 points per game), produced the biggest two-game whippings of any pair of ranked teams in history by defeating Syracuse and Washington by a combined 124-7, set a new UM record for scoring and featured a defense that scored eight touchdowns and led the nation in pass defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

Throw in a kicking game that featured one of the nation's finest punters and a placekicker who led the nation in field goals and it is hard to argue against the 2001 edition. An astounding seven Hurricanes were named to at least one All-America team's first unit. Six players were finalists for national awards, led by Outland Trophy winner Bryant McKinnie at offensive tackle and Maxwell Award winning quarterback Ken Dorsey.

The 2001 Hurricanes started with a stunning rout of Penn State on the road before the largest crowd (109,313) ever to see a Miami game. They ended Florida State's 54-game unbeaten streak in Tallahassee, Fla., with a resounding 48-27 whipping.

The stars were numerous. On offense: quarterback Ken Dorsey, tailback Clinton Portis (1,200 yards rushing), tight end Jeremy Shockey, an offensive line that allowed an incredibly low two sacks by the starting unit, a receivers corps led by Andre Johnson, a defensive line in which nine players could play without losing a step led by William Joseph, a linebacker corps that developed into a force and a secondary that was the nation's best, led by safety Edward Reed and cornerbacks Mike Rumph and Phillip Buchanon.

The power of this team was evident for all to see in its Rose Bowl rout of Nebraska for the national title. Miami roared to a 34-0 halftime lead, erasing any doubts about what team was college football's best in 2001.

UM ended a storybook climb to the national title by dealing Nebraska a 31-30 defeat. Miami QB Bernie Kosar earned MVP honors by throwing for a Orange Bowl-record 300 yards. Linebacker Jack Fernandez was named Defensive MVP as the Canes contained a Nebraska offense that had set numerous NCAA records. Late in the game, Jeff Smith set Nebraska up for the potential win with a 24-yard touchdown run to pull the Huskers to within one. Then, Nebraska lined up for a two-point attempt. 1986 SUGAR BOWL

TENNESSEE 35, MIAMI 7

JANUARY 1, 1986 • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Amid the revelry of New Orleans' Bourbon Street, the 1986 Sugar Bowl had it all. Miami, with one of the most dominant offenses in college football, was shooting for the national championship. The Volunteers, an underrated team who rolled into New Orleans with a hard-fought SEC title, were looking for the national respect they felt had eluded them. Tennessee used a solid offense and an opportunistic defense to down the second-ranked Canes. Despite constant pressure, Vinny Testaverde threw for 217 yards on 20 of 36 passing. UT QB Daryl Dickey, who earned MVP honors, finished with 131 yards on 15 of 25 passes.

JANUARY 2, 1987 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

A national television audience watched the "Battle For No. 1" and the Hurricanes found themselves 77 yards from the national championship with just over three minutes left to play. Vinny Testaverde engineered a thrilling drive that included a 31-yard strike to Brian Blades on a 4th-and-6 play from Miami's own 27. The pass to Blades was the first of six consecutive completions by Testaverde that brought Miami to PSU's 6-yard line. However, with 18 seconds remaining, Pete Gifopoulos ended UM's drive for the national title by intercepting a Testaverde pass at the goal line. The Canes finished with 445 total yards and 22 first downs while holding PSU to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 162 yards and just eight first downs. But seven turnovers tripped the Canes on the road to the national title.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1988 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 20, OKLAHOMA 14

JANUARY 1, 1988 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the second time in five years, the Hurricanes were champions of the college football world. Just as they had done in 1983, the '87 Canes knocked off the nation's then No.1-ranked team in the Orange Bowl Classic. The second-ranked Hurricanes capped the school's second straight undefeated regular season with a 20-14 victory over Oklahoma. Sophomore QB Steve Walsh hit on 18-of-30 passing for 209 yards and two touchdowns. 1989 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 23, NEBRASKA 3

JANUARY 2, 1989 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the first time in four years, Miami was not playing for the national title in its New Year's bowl game. Moments before kickoff of the 55th annual Orange Bowl Classic vs. Nebraska, the Canes learned that the No. 1 ranked team, Notre Dame, had defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. As the nation tuned in to the Orange Bowl, many felt the University of Miami would come out flat, knowing that all possibility of a repeat national title was lost. UM showed its true mettle, dominating the Big Eight Champions on offense, defense and special teams from the kickoff. The statistics backed up the score as UM held a 212-29 lead in total yards and an 11-2 edge in first downs.

Miami's 34-game winning streak came to an end as Ohio State defeated the Hurricanes 31-24 in double overtime to win the Fiesta Bowl and the BCS National Championship. Maurice Clarett scored his second touchdown on a five-yard run in the second overtime. Craig Krenzel had a pair of touchdown runs for the Buckeyes (14-0), who ended Miami's winning streak — the sixth-longest in college football history — in a game of high drama that was prolonged by a controversial pass interference call. It was the first-ever overtime in a BCS title game, despite Miami turning the ball over five times and losing Willis McGahee to a knee injury in the fourth quarter. On the final play of regulation, Todd Sievers kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie it at 17-17. Kellen Winslow Jr. caught a seven-yard TD pass from Ken Dorsey in the first overtime. On 4th-and-goal from the 5, Glenn Sharpe batted away a pass intended for Chris Gamble. Miami began its celebration, but Sharpe was flagged for pass interference. Ninth-ranked Miami used all its energy to take a tense 16-14 victory over eighth-ranked Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium, riding big performances by Jarrett Payton and Jon Peattie and a big play by D.J. Xavier Beitia, who was wide left on a potential game-winning 43-yard field goal in the previous year's loss at Miami, was wide right on a 39-yarder with five and a half minutes to go. Payton, who victimized FSU for 97 yards and a TD catch in a win in October, ran for 131 on 22 carries to earn MVP honors. 2015 HYUNDAI SUN BOWL

WASHINGTON STATE 20, MIAMI 14

DECEMBER 26, 2015 • EL PASO, TEXAS

Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami in the snowy Sun Bowl. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton's 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Brad Kaaya was 17-of-30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give

2016 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

MIAMI 31, WEST VIRGINIA 14

DECEMBER 28, 2016 • ORLANDO, FLA.

In dire need of some offense and with his team trailing West Virginia early in the Russell Athletic Bowl, University of Miami head coach Mark Richt called a simple hitch route to open the Hurricanes' seventh offensive series. Freshman wide receiver Ahmmmon Richards caught a pass and blew by four defenders for a 51-yard touchdown, jumpstarting a dominant stretch by Russell Athletic Bowl MVP Brad Kaaya that propelled Miami to its first bowl win since 2006, 31-14 over West Virginia. After Kaaya hit Richards, 48,625 fans watched the junior complete 18 of his next 20 passes, a streak that included a Miami bowl record-tying four touchdown passes. The Hurricanes (9-4) offense had strung together six straight three-and-outs and totaled just 31 yards over their first six drives, but something clicked for Miami after the Richards touchdown. Miami scored points on five straight possessions, including touchdown passes from Kaaya to Malcolm Lewis, Braxton Berrios and David Njoku. Kaaya's four touchdown passes matched Craig Erickson's performance in the 1991 Cotton Bowl.

2017 CAPITAL ONE ORANGE BOWL

WISCONSIN 34, MIAMI 24

DECEMBER 30, 2017 • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

In a battle of two teams with outstanding defenses, few could have predicted a game that would feature 58 combined points scored. But an unexpected back-and-forth shootout is exactly what happened at Hard Rock Stadium, as the No. 6 Wisconsin Badgers outscored the No. 10 Miami Hurricanes, 34-24, to win the 2017 Capital One Orange Bowl. Miami (10-3, 7-1 ACC) entered the game looking to run the ball effectively and limit the Wisconsin (13-1, 12-0 Big Ten) ground game and they accomplished both. The Hurricanes totaled 377 yards of offense, including 174 rushing yards. The Badgers had allowed 150 rushing yards or fewer in 12 of 14 games this season. The Canes also held Wisconsin to just 142 rushing yards after the Badgers averaged 229 rushing yards per game this season. But Miami could not find a solution for Wisconsin quarterback Alex Hornibrook, who threw for 258 yards and four touchdowns en route to game MVP honors. DeeJay Dallas and Travis Homer each scored rushing touchdowns for the Hurricanes, while Lawrence Cager hauled in a 38-yard scoring strike. The loss dropped Miami's all-time Orange Bowl record to 6-4.

2018 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

WISCONSIN 35, MIAMI 3

DECEMBER 27, 2018 • NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Canes faced the Badgers in a bowl game for the second straight year and were hungry to avenge their 2017 loss to Wisconsin in the Capital One Orange Bowl. But Badgers' All-American running back Jonathan Taylor posted a 205-yard rushing performance and Wisconsin's defense forced five turnovers to ensure a 35-3 victory at Yankee Stadium. The Badgers wasted little time showing they meant business, driving 65 yards in just 3:04 to take a lead in the first quarter. UW doubled its momentum when the Badgers' Eric Burrell picked off Miami quarterback Malik Rosier on the Canes' first play from scrimmage and returned the ball to the UM 7. One play later, Taylor made it 14-0. The Canes continued to shine defensively. With their second sack of the night, a four-yard loss by Michael Pinckney, Miami set the single-season record for tackles for loss in a season. The Canes finished with 10 tackles for loss on the night and closed out the season with a school record 136 TFLs. Miami's previous record of 130 was set in 1999.

2019 WALK-ON'S INDEPENDENCE BOWL

LOUISIANA TECH 14, MIAMI 0

DECEMBER 26, 2019 • SHREVEPORT, LA.

The Miami Hurricanes fell short in a defensive battle at the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl, 14-0. The game featured a combined 18 punts between both teams, with each side punting the ball nine times to set new Independence Bowl records. The two teams also forced four turnovers and combined for seven sacks and nine tackles for loss, showing that offensive success was hard to come by. ACC Freshman of the Year Gregory Rousseau came up with a nine-yard sack on third and 31 to force a punt by the Bulldogs in the first quarter. The sack by Rousseau was his 15th of the year. Team captain Shaquille Quarterman made his UM record 52nd career start and finished the game with 11 tackles. Freshman Sam Brooks had a team-high 12 tackles and 0.5 TFLs in his first career start. Leading 7-0 late in the contest, the Bulldogs solidified the victory with 1:15 remaining in the game, with QB J'Mar Smith rushed into the end zone from eight yards out to put Louisiana Tech up by 14 points. With the win, the Bulldogs secured their first 10-win season since 1984.

2020 CHEEZ-IT BOWL

OKLAHOMA STATE 37, MIAMI 34

DECEMBER 29, 2020 • ORLANDO, FLA.

A resilient Miami team battled back from a three-touchdown deficit, but could not overcome the early Oklahoma State lead in a 37-34 loss in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl. Miami (8-3) got on the board in the second quarter when D'Eriq King threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Brevin Jordan. But King left with a right knee injury with 4:06 remaining in the first half. The Hurricanes rallied behind backup quarterback N'Kosi Perry, who threw for 228 yards and two touchdowns. Cam'Ron Harris' 42-yard touchdown run made it 21-19 in the third quarter, but Jordan came up short on the 2-point conversion. Perry's 5-yard TD pass to Michael Harley helped the Hurricanes close to 37-34 with 5:39 left. But he misfired on six of his final nine passes, and his 6-yard pass to Michael Parrott was not enough to convert a fourth-and-9 with under two minutes remaining.

DECEMBER 28, 2023 • NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Canes were missing five starters - including their quarterback, two offensive linemen and their dynamic duo of safeties - but what hadn't changed was UM's tenacity and resolve. Miami battled from start to finish - at one point overcoming a 14-point deficit to take the lead and later recovering a late onside kick. But ultimately the Canes fell short in a 31-24 loss to the Scarlet Knights in the 13th edition of the bowl game hosted by Major League Baseball's New York Yankees. Jacurri Brown completed 20 of 31 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and one interception, adding 57 yards and two scores on the ground. Wide receiver Xavier Restrepo caught 11 passes for 99 yards and one score, setting Miami's single-season reception mark (85) in the process. JACK HARDING MVP AWARD

- Each season the players and coaches of the University of Miami football team select a most valuable player, to be awarded the Jack Harding MVP Award.
- Presented since 1964, this honor is the highest performance-based award a Hurricanes player can attain from his teammates. The award is named for former UM head coach and athletic director Jack Harding, who coached the Hurricanes' football team from 1937-42 and 1945-47. Harding relinquished his coaching duties after the 1947 season and took over as AD, a post he held until his death in 1963.
- As football coach, Harding oversaw the program's rise into a major program. His 1938 team was his best, traveling to Gainesville, Fla., and handing Florida an upset loss in the first meeting between the schools. His teams posted major intersectional wins over Michigan State, Auburn, NC State, Clemson and Florida that put Miami football on the map.
- A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Harding was an accomplished athlete in his own right, lettering in football for legendary coaches Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland, in addition to earning varsity letters in baseball and basketball.
